“My flesh and my heart may fail. But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.” (Psalm 73:26, NIV)

But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly about my weakness, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weakness, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.” (2 Corinthians 12:9-10, NIV)

“My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.” (Psalm 73:26, NIV)

“for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity.” (Proverbs 24:16, ESV)

“The steps of a man are established by the Lord, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the Lord upholds his hand.” (Psalm 37:23-24, ESV)

“Life is short, art long, opportunity fleeting, experience treacherous, judgement difficult.”
--- Hippocrates (460-400 B.C.)

“Artists don’t get to work until the pain of working is exceeded by the pain of not working.” Stephen DeStaebler

“Ever tried. Ever failed. No matter. Try again. Fail again. Fail better.” Samuel Beckett,
Worstard Ho

“You go through multiple failures every day on your way to finding something that does work. A lot of my ideas fail, but they give me clues to what direction might succeed. I have to be fairly confident about my ability to think on my feet and turn the failures into something interesting.” Choreographer Gabrielle Lamb

“Actively failing and embracing failure as nothing more than feedback for the next stage of your work is critical to success in any genre.” -Visual Artist and Architect Amanda Williams
